

EVENTS – June 2011, WEEK 4

Hey Ya'll! I'm Sade Turnipseed your host of Delta Renaissance. I am here with your cultural arts updates and I am excited about what is going on this week:

On Friday July 2nd da House of Khafre will bring Mr Charles Wilson, the Mississippi Boy himself to the Delta to perform on the Front Porch stage. And yes he will still have some of that Mississippi mud on his boots. He will also be at da' House singing many of his other great hits. The doors to da' house will open at 8pm this Friday night for yet again another amazing cultural arts program. +++++ Also at Da' House this weekend is Dr Rose Stiffen who will be there to read selected passages from her recently released book entitled "Walk in Bethel" Dr. Stiffen will have books on hand, so come on out this Sunday at 3pm to get your signed copy. Da' House is located at 105 Main Street, in downtown Indianola. For more information please contact Robert Terrell at 662.887.2900.

The soon to be very famous Sister Lucille will be at the Washington County Convention Center on Sunday July 3rd with her very very very funny Comedy Show. The laughing begins at 6:30pm and won't stop until you leave, so please call Lisa Bush 378.7563 to get more information and to purchase your tickets.

The July 4th Celebration at Lake Washington will feature the Southern Star Bait 'N Thangs. You can Contact Mike Jones 822.2087, for more information

In Greenville the festivities will be at Schelben Park beginning at 6:00 pm the Highway 69 Band and Billy Smiley & the Young Guns will be there to perform, and at 9:30 the fireworks will begin. Also the folks over at the Welcome Center invite everyone to come out and enjoy a light lunch with them. They will be serving hot dogs, chips and refreshments beginning around noon. Please Contact Markita Grady 332.2378, for more information

The Greenville Higher Education Center will be offering a CEU Class, that's Continue Education Units, for teachers who need recertification this summer. The class Art in Culture will be taught by Nancy Stone-Street starting July 11th, for one week. Please call Margaret Karr at 378-5338 from 10-noon Monday thru Thursday for more details.

The Small Works on Paper touring art exhibition will be on display in Lake

Village July 6-29. Presented by the Arkansas Arts Council and hosted by Guachoya Cultural Art Center. Admission is free. The opening reception will be held Thursday, July 7, from 6-7:30 pm at the gallery, which is located on 1652 Hwy 65 & 82 South. For more information you may certainly contact Tracy Gore at 870-265-6077

NOW Please do what ever you can to support the arts and culture here in the Delta, like attending one of these great events. And don't forget to tune in DELTA FOX-10, this Saturday to see the full version of "Delta Renaissance." This has been Sade Turnipseed inviting you all to stay connected to your culture, right here on WABG and DELTA FOX-10.

If you have any cultural arts announcements that you would like to share please send the information to: deltarenaissance@aol.com, or fax it to 662.887.2900. And as usual you can always check out all the events online at www.DeltaRenaissance.com.
