

Hey Ya'll! I'm Sade Turnipseed your host of Delta Renaissance the number one cultural talk show in the Delta. And I am here with your cultural arts updates:

There will be A Celebration of Sisterhood and Fall Luncheon Event held on Saturday, November 5, 2011, 11:00 a.m. at the TESC United Center located at 754 Main Street in Greenville. Featured are a Live Jazz performance by Mississippi's Daughter, Gabbie McGee-Kelly; A presentation by Delta Health Alliance Body and Soul; Fashion Tips and a Best Stylish Wear Contest; and a Dance Performance by Greenville's own Hattie Peyton. This event will be informative, enjoyable and a whole lot of fun!

Native American Days are going on through November 5th at the Winterville Mounds. Come on out and meet members from the Choctaw, Seminole, Cherokee, and Muscogee nations, who will be there to present Native American cooking, dancing, children's tent activities, and arts and crafts. If you need more information, please Contact Susie Smith 662.334.4684

The 5th Annual Gumbo Nationals and Weekly Racing is going on right now through Saturday at the Washington County Convention Center. This year's event is gonna be the biggest show Greenville Speedway has ever had. For more information please contact Wesley Washington @ 822-7071 or visit them online at greenvillespeedway.net

The Candace Jeffress Exhibit will be on display at the GUACHOYA CULTURAL ART CENTER, beginning November 8 and running through Dec 30. A public reception to celebrate the opening will be held Thursday, November 10 from 6:00-7:30. Admission is free. GUACHOYA CULTURAL ART CENTER, is located at 1652 Hwy 65 & 82 South, Lake Village, AR. You may contact Tracy Gore at 870-265-6077, for more information.

The NAACP, Khafre, Inc and The MIC Magazine have joined to present The Delta Leadership Lecture Series for Youth. The youth empowerment and professional development program is presented each and every Saturday at noon and is free for youth between the ages of 13 to 25. This week there will be a historical portrayal of the life and times of Ida B. Wells-Barnett. Lunch will be provided for the youth participants.

And don't forget about line dance classes happening right here at the Elks Club in Greenville and da' House of Khafre, in Indianola. The dancers at da House are challenged to participate in a Biggest Loser competition on Mondays and Wednesdays at 7:30pm. A cash prize is awarded to the person who loses the most weight. Also, Belly Dance classes by Vanessa Marble are still offered on Sundays at 4pm. And we hope you can find the time to check out these classes and join us in our effort to get healthy here in the Delta! For more info about all these events at da House, you can call 347.8198.

NOW Please do what ever you can to support the arts and culture here in the Delta, like attending one of these great events. You can now see the Delta Renaissance show every Saturday night during primetime on the NBC 33 network at 10pm. So don't forget to tune in this Saturday to see the full version of the Delta's number one cultural arts program. This week I will be talking to Senator John Horn, of the Mississippi State Legislature. This has been Sade Turnipseed inviting you all to stay connected to your culture, right here on WABG, DELTA FOX-10 and NBC 33. If you have any cultural arts announcements that you would like to share please send the information to: deltarenaissance@aol.com, or fax it to 662.887.2900. And as usual you can always check out some of the events online at www.DeltaRenaissance.com.
