

Hey Ya'll! I'm Sade Turnipseed your host of Delta Renaissance the number one cultural talk show in the Delta. And I am here with your cultural arts updates:

A Taste of Greenville happens today at the E.E. Bass Auditorium. The folks at Main Street are inviting everyone to come on out and get a taste of our local restaurants. The event takes place between 5 and 7pm and for a very special treat Dr Alphonso Sanders will perform for your listening pleasure. For more information you may contact Betty Lynn Cameron 378.3121

Also tonight you can leave the Taste and go on over to the Bologna Theatre at Delta State to enjoy BLAST! winners of the 2001 Tony Award for "Best Special Theatrical Event" and the 2001 Emmy Award for "Best Choreography." BLAST! is an intense musical experience that mixes classical, jazz, and blues with breathtaking visual precision. The Blast begins at 7:30 this evening.

Merchants Holiday Open House will happen Sunday November 13th in, Cleveland. Festive Christmas lights will be strung along the walking trail and in merchants' windows in the historic downtown. Local merchants will serve cider and holiday treats as they welcome visitors into their stores. The merchants Holiday Open House is an event for the entire family to enjoy.

The NAACP, Khafre, Inc and The MIC Magazine have joined to present The Delta Leadership Lecture Series for Youth. The youth empowerment and professional development program is presented each and every Saturday at noon and is free for youth between the ages of 13 to 25. This week there will be a conversation with Delta's own Curtis Smith, a Forensic Scientist and Youth Advocate from Stephenville, MS. Lunch will be provided for all youth participants.

And don't forget about line dance classes happening right here at the Elks Club in Greenville and da' House of Khafre, in Indianola. The dancers at da House are challenged to participate in a Biggest Loser competition on Mondays and Wednesdays at 7:30pm. A cash prize is awarded to the person who loses the most weight. Also, Belly Dance classes by Vanessa Marble are still offered on Sundays at 4pm. And we hope you can find the time to check out these classes and join us in our effort to get healthy here in the Delta! For more info about all these events at da House, you can call 347.8198.

NOW Please do what ever you can to support the arts and culture here in the Delta, like attending one of these great events. You can now see the Delta Renaissance show every Saturday night during primetime on the NBC 33 network at 10pm. So don't forget to tune in this Saturday to see the full version of the Delta's number one cultural arts program. This week I will be talking to entertainer Otis T.C.B. Taylor, from Clarksdale. This has been Sade Turnipseed inviting you all to stay connected to your culture, right here on WABG, DELTA FOX-10 and NBC 33. If you have any cultural arts announcements that you would like to share please send the information to: deltarenaissance@aol.com, or fax it to 662.887.2900. And as usual you can always check out some of the events online at www.DeltaRenaissance.com.
