The Mississippi Delta Blues Society is proud to present the Pre-Blues Music Awards, and the Denise LaSalle Homecoming hosted by the empress of the blues herself Ms. Denise LaSalle and me. Recognized will be all the many contributors to America's root music and the role that the blues has played to the many cultures around the world. No matter how far you roam, the road of American music leads back home to the Delta. The NAACP, Khafre, Inc and The MIC Magazine have joined to present The Delta Leadership Lecture Series for Youth. The youth empowerment and professional development program is presented each and every Saturday at noon for youth between the ages of 13 to 25. This week there will be a conversation with Mr. Randy Ball, Director of Federal Programs for the Sunflower School District. Lunch will be provided for free to all youth participants.

And don't forget about line dance classes happening right here at the Elks Club in Greenville and da' House of Khafre, in Indianola. The dancers at da House are challenged to participate in a Biggest Loser competition on Mondays and Wednesdays at 7:30pm. A cash prize is awarded to the person who loses the most weight. Also, Belly Dance classes by Vanessa Marble are still offered on Sundays at 4pm.
